

Character Card

Book Title	The Little Big Clockmaker
Name	Egan Bagley
Status	Protagonist
DOB	1 st November
Age	Mid forties
Star sign	Scorpio
Career	Clocksmith

Address	A posh house by the river with overflowing fountains in the city of Chester.
Character's part in the story	He creates a magnificent time piece called the Eastgate Clock. He discovers it has magical powers after a visit from a gypsy. When he removes and replaces the hands on its four faces. He can go forwards and backwards in time and becomes rich!
Looks:	His hair is brown but goes grey eventually.
Height/build/health	A short elf-like man. He maybe small but has intensely focused eyes which make him stand out in a crowd. Of medium build and generally quite fit.
Voice/Accent	Slightly toneless voice – Cheshire accent.
Personality/ Characteristic Traits	Likes to be focused on anything he does and whatever he does he likes to do well. He's a bit bossy and short-tempered. Sometimes selfish. When he is working on his clocks he does not like company and tends to be on his own a lot. He is sensitive to comments and takes things to heart.
Clothes	He wears round spectacles and likes brown tweed jackets. When he is rich he buys silken suits.
Family	Comes from a family of clocksmiths. Has been taught by his father.
Friends	Has no friends.
Likes	Likes to be on his own. Money. Helping the poor.
Dislikes	People interrupting him when he is working.
Important information	Everyone thinks he has aged over night because he has been stopping and restarting time for years but to them it is still the time when he first made the clock.

